HOAGLAND'S NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. K. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO SEPTEMBER 14.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Mr. Cole, lately returned from St. Domingo, had a long interview with Secretary Fish, to-day.

Col. Arthur B. Lee, United States Army, (retired) has been appointed by the Secretary of War Governor of the Soldiers' Home, and Col. H. N. Tweedly (retired) Deputy Governor.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the public schools this evening, the application of white and colored persons for the establishment of a school for both white and colored children in the northern part of the city was refused by a vote of six to seven, and the application was referred to the City Council for their action. The word "white" still exists in the school laws.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A Republican's special says: Mr. Frelinghuysen has declined the Chinese Mission. It is reported that the position has been offered to Senator E. D. Morgan, who agrees to accept if the Mission is made a first class one. The same special thinks J. D. Cameron, son of Senator Cameron, will be offered the portfolio of the War Department. The Tribune's special thinks the latter report unfounded.

The Administration has appointed Davis men to office in Texas in opposition to the men recommended by Hamilton.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Tribune editorially gives prominence to the following: We are credibly informed that certain financiers of our city, in combination with European capitalists, have conspired to buy and withdraw from use 30,000,000 gold, with the intent to compel those who must pay gold at the custom house or elsewhere to buy of them at exorbitant rates. We call on the Secretary of the Treasury to take the needful steps to ascertain the fact, and if there be such a combination, to use the power lodged in his hands in such a way as the public good requires.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Chas. B. Conklin, one of the messengers of the Merchant's Union Express Company, has been under detention nearly a month on suspicion of being privy to the robbery of the company on Aug. 11th on the Central railroad. He was brought before the Supreme Court to-day, on a writ of habeas corpus and discharged, there being no evidence against him. It is stated that the amount obtained by the robbery was $80,000.

A grand banquet was given at Delmonico's tonight in honor of the Harvard crew. They have accepted the hospitalities of the city of Boston.

The Delaware and Lackawanna railroads has given $20,000 for the relief of the Avondale sufferers. The company does not believe the fire was the work of incendiaries, but the result of carelessness of a miner who descended the shaft with a bundle of hay which became ignited from a lamp carried in his hat. Adams express company contributed $1,000 for the sufferers. Work in all the mines is going on quietly, except in the Avondale mine, where $50,000 and several months time will be consumed in repairs.

It is stated that the competing lines in the West are making strong efforts to obtain possession of the Boston, Hartford and Erie railroad, by buying up the franchise as it approaches completion. The road will soon be open to Fishkill.

Stewart's title to the Hempstead plains purchase has finally been confirmed and the deed is recorded.

James Mace, the English pugilist, was among the passengers by the City of Antwerp.

Bootmakers' Strike—An Unwarrantable Demand.

BINGHAMPTON, Sept. 14.—One hundred bootmakers in the employ of Hester Brothers & Co. are on a strike, the Head Center of the St. Crispin order deciding that they must quit work. The compensation is not complained of, but the employers refused to discharge some old hands not members of the St. Crispin Society.

Humboldt Centennial.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—The Humboldt Centennial was celebrated by a concert at Lafayette Park this afternoon; orations and music at Polytechnic hall in the evening.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 14.—President Grant and party arrived here at one P. M. to-day. After a reception at the Monongahela House they attended the great German picnic, which was part of the programme in the Humboldt celebration, and a grand affair. Business is almost entirely suspended. The procession was very large and imposing. Fully 10,000 people witnessed the laying of the corner stone of the monument in the Park at Allegheny. It is estimated that as many, were present at the picnic there.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 14.—The Humboldt Centennial was celebrated by a procession, music and orations in English and German.

The State fair opened to-day on the grounds of the Jefferson City Association. The attendance was far below that of the preceding years. The exhibition of cattle was splendid.

Kriel, the wife murderer, has been respited till October 8th by the Governor, pending a hearing of his case in the Court of Appeals.

St. Louis Dispatch.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—The grand jury of Monroe county, Ill., has indicted McCoole, Gallagher and Allen for violation of the State law in engaging in a prize fight in that county, and issued warrants for their arrest.

Waddy Thompson, of Memphis, who came here with Perry Fuller, has been arrested, charged with complicity with Fuller in the revenue frauds at New Orleans. Both he and Fuller waived examinations and were ordered by U. S. Commissioner Eaton to be sent to New Orleans in charge of the U. S. Marshal.

Thompson recently commenced a suit in the Circuit Court against Hudson Bridge, Albert Pearce and others for sums aggregating $220,000, which he claims to be due him in cotton speculations during the war.

Railroad Celebration.

WATERVILLE, Kansas, Sept. 14.—Excursionists from St. Louis and other points will celebrate the opening of the Missouri Pacific Railroad to Atchison. They arrived at the end of the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad, 150 miles from St. Louis, this afternoon.

Quebec Dispatch.

QUEBEC, Sept. 14.—Prince Arthur will arrive here to-morrow morning and be the guest of the Lieutenant Governor, Bellian. Great preparations are being made to welcome him.

Annexation Meeting in Canada.

QUEBEC, Sept. 14.—An annexation meeting on Tuesday, adopted resolutions deploring the depression in the value of real estate, the diminution of ship-building, the waste of magnificent water-power and the steady emigration of young men to the United States from the desolation which had apparently marked the city for its own; declaring these facts and the prosperity of the United States due not to the imaginary boundary line, but to the working of the institutions of new countries, and setting forth as the deliberate opinion of the meeting, that steps should immediately be taken towards addressing a petition to the Imperial authorities praying to be informed whether the nearly unanimous desire on the part of the people of the Dominion for an incorporation with the territory of the United States would not receive from the British people the same gracious reception accorded to a like request from the people of the Ionian Islands for a union with Greece. A committee was appointed to carry out these resolutions, and the meeting then adjourned with three cheers for annexation. The crowd was very orderly and scarcely any marks of disapproval were manifested.

The Pennsylvania Disaster—Coroner's Verdict.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—A Tribune special from Plymouth says the jury returned the following verdict: That the said Palmer and others came to their deaths in the Avondale mines; that the causes of the deaths was the exhaustion of atmospheric air, or the prevalence of sulphuric and carbonic acids in said Avondale mines, caused by the burning of the head house and breaker on the 6th day of September, thereby destroying the air courses leading from the mine through the shaft; that the fire originated from a furnace in the mines, setting fire to a wooden bracket on an up cast air course leading from the head house. The jury regard the present mode of mining in a large number of mines, working by shaft, as insecure and unsafe to miners, and would strongly recommend in all cases, when practicable, two places for ingress and egress, and a more perfect ventilation, thereby rendering greater security to the lives of miners under any similar accident.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The contributions to the Avondale fund amount to over $20,000, and are still arriving.

Chicago Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—The Republican Convention of this city have nominated candidates for city officers. Resolutions were adopted in favor of the reduction of excessive compensation received in the way of fees by county and city officials.

A meeting of gentlemen, held last evening at the Sherman house, made arrangements for the reception of the party of Pioneer Society of California upon their arrival in this city. Col. Bowen, Mr. Pullman and J. M. Richards are appointed a Committee to make preliminary arrangements.

Virginia Affairs.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Herald's special from Richmond says that by the provisions of the new constitution, the stay law is abrogated and the Legislature is prohibited from passing any law to stay the collection of debts. This will bring most of the landed property in the State under the hammer of the sheriff as soon as the State is reconstructed and the new constitution becomes a law. It will be a source of much hardship to all who owe heavy debts and have large judgments recorded against them. A large portion of the judgments are in favor of Northern creditors against merchants here, who in turn hold judgments against the farmers and planters.

Humboldt Celebration.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The Humboldt Centenary celebration was the most interesting demonstration made here in many years. Ex-President Fillmore read an account of a personal interview with Humboldt in 1849.

Democratic Row in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—The Democratic ticket, as reported yesterday, was all knocked to pieces and another is now up. The matter will be settled, perhaps, by the Executive Committee, which meets to-night.

Billiard Match.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A billiard match between John Deery, the present champion, and Levy Foster, for the championship and $1,000, was played at the Hippodrome, 14th street, New York, last night, and was won by Deery by 291 points. Foster was ahead up to 1,000.

Maine Election—Complete Republican Triumph.

BELFAST, Me., Sept. 15.—The Republican representatives are elected in every district but one. Waldo county, where Hinchborn lives, gives Chamberlain 3,138, Smith 2,588, Hinchborn 393. Last year it gave 1,188 Republican majority.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—The centennial anniversary of Humboldt was very generally celebrated by the Germans in the principal cities throughout the country.

HALIFAX, Sept. 14.—The steamer Hornet went to sea hurriedly last night. She shipped a lot of hard characters here, and there is little doubt but that she is bound for Cuba.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The Emperor gave an audience to Prim yesterday.

Reports from Madrid assert that a fleet of ironclads will be sent to Cuba in November, in case the United States recognizes the insurgents. The Spanish Government stops all telegrams which they don't approve, especially those concerning Cuba.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—A Herald special from Paris, has a rumor very extensively circulated in the city to-day to the effect that the Emperor seriously contemplates abdicating the throne in favor of his son. It is said a council of Regency will be created, having the Empress and Prince Napoleon Bonaparte at its head, as provided in the new Constitution, to endure through the Prince's minority. Napoleon's health remains in a very uncertain condition.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—A heavy storm prevailed yesterday throughout England and the Continent. Many damages are reported. The steamer City of Limerick put in at Queenstown.

A subscription is started for the Avondale sufferers.

Ex-Minister Washburne writes to the London papers, reiterating the statement of the barbarities of Lopez. He says there are but few foreigners now in Paraguay, and they are only permitted to leave because they are not useful to the Dictator. If they succeed in escaping, they will have to thank the fortunes of war only and the protection of our Government.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—A Madrid correspondent of the Times writes as follows:

"Hitherto, the Spanish Government and press unwisely adopted a plan of concealing unfavorable Cuban news, but the Government has now broken the silence and startled the Spaniards by making the statement of actual facts and vehemently urging the dispatch of troops and the union of all parties, so Government will be left free to give the Cuban ... Gen. Sickles' proposal to recognize the Cuban insurgents as belligerents, has caused as much excitement as if he threatens to take part with the Cubans, and has had the effect to make funds fall to the lowest point touched for 16 years. The dispatches of General Sickles is not yet published. Whatever its moral effect may be, the remonstrance of the United States has unquestionably terrified the Spaniards. The Times' editorial on the Cuban question says: If the American negotiations for the cession of Cuba have failed, it must be because the sum tendered is deemed insufficient or the Washington Government dreads the opposition of those who feel confident that Cuba must fall into the hands of the United States, and deem its fall near. The Spanish Government has been advised to put an end to the insurrection or give up the island on any terms. If these circumstances prompted the Madrid Government to hold its last card for the Antilles and stake it on it, it can be congratulated on the resolution. The subjugation of Cuba can't be achieved by soldiers. Spain has no friends on the island. Prim and Serrano have often told the Cortes that the loss of Cuba is merely a question of time. It is to be hoped that wisdom and consideration will enable them to see that it is good to be rid of the island on any terms and cause them to consider before wasting men and money, which they can't spare, in the furtherance of an enterprise which will never yield the hundredth part of what it has already cost.

BARCELONA, Sept. 14.—The Diaro hopes, notwithstanding the action of the United States, that Spain knows how to maintain her flag and dignity.

Dispatch from Elko.

ELKO, Nev., Sept. 14.—Mr. Tonkin, who has been prospecting for coal for the Central Pacific Railroad Company, has struck a vein about seven feet thick within two miles of Elko, and pronounced it a No. 1 article for all purposes.

Three new coaches for the Central Pacific passed here last night on the freight train going east.

An attempt to rob Hill Beachey's stage was made one mile from Buck's station. Several shots were fired at the leaders and driver, but they escaped to the station and laid over until morning.

The Attorney General, to whom the President referred the question of administering the test oath to the members elect of the Virginia Legislature, has submitted his opinion. The London Times remarks on the late boat race, "that the issue is no inapt illustration of the difference between the two nations. The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 16, 1869.

Protection in England; Free Trade in America.

It is a significant fact that at the moment when the agitation for free trade is rising in this country the workmen of England are organizing an effort to secure protective laws. At Kingston, at Sheffield and at other places in England, immense meetings have recently been held in favor of protection. At the Kingston meeting the statement was made that there were at present in London as many foreign manufactured goods as fifteen thousand workmen could produce in a year; and it was said that if these goods had all been made by Englishmen the number of paupers in the workhouse of the great city would be materially less. The champions of the new movement are burrowing in statistics, and they find that half the iron and glass work in the great buildings of London comes from Sweden and Belgium. What they demand is that a duty shall be paid on every ton of goods brought into the country, equal to the amount of taxes which would have to be paid as the result of the manufacture of those goods at home. The London Times of recent date has a report of a meeting at Shoreditch Town Hall, "to take into consideration the present critical state of the country, the depression of trade, and the the general want of employment consequent on the importation of foreign manufactured goods, and to petition Parliament for a commission of inquiry as to the working of our commercial policy." At this meeting the example of America was held up to show that one of the most advanced countries in the world protects its workmen with duties on imported goods in order that its own industries may not be subject to foreign competition. The meeting adopted the following resolution:

That the principle of free trade should be based upon the equality of international exchanges; but other nations not having adopted the principle it has become injurious to England, and is the cause of the present depression of trade, the want of employment and the increase in pauperism. This meeting, therefore, considers it to be the duty of the Government to institute an immediate inquiry into the working of our commercial policy, with the view of ascertaining how far this unreciprocated free trade contributes toward producing this depression, want of employment and pauperism; and to what extent it may be limited so as to produce an effectual remedy.

It is observable that the authors of this resolution are beginning to see that a theory cannot stand against the practical facts and necessities of industry. At this time there is an unprecedented exodus of artisans from England to the United States; which goes to show that English mechanics are anxious to reach a country where skilled labor is protected and rewarded. The movement in favor of protection is rapidly extending in England, and it would be one of the curious things of history if that country should renounce her free trade policy and adopt protective principles.

The leading organ of the free traders in the United States is the New York Evening Post. But even that paper confesses the impracticability of the theory in the following words:

Were this policy resolutely and thoroughly adopted, it would doubtless be an immense benefit to the whole country, for there is no fact more perfectly demonstrated by economical science than that direct taxation is cheaper than indirect, internal excise than tariffs, and that the highest national prosperity is attainable only with perfect freedom of trade. But we are not aware that any practical statesman has proposed the sudden adoption of this plan in the United States. And although there has been a healthy and promising growth of opinion and knowledge on this subject of late, it may still be doubted whether the people of this country are quite ready yet for the repeal of the tariff and the destruction of custom houses.

If free trade or anything approximating to it were adopted in this country the whole people next year would fly back to the present system as the only mode of relief. Free trade is direct taxation; and this beyond the amount now borne, the people will not endure. As the only alternative of a tariff is heavy direct taxation it may be set down as certain that the experiment will not be tried.

From the Northern Pacific Railroad Party.

It will be remembered that W. M. Roberts, who was here with Canfield's Northern Pacific railroad party early in July last, was chosen by Jay Cooke to make the exploration in the capacity of an engineer, and report as to the practicability of the route. In a letter dated Deer Lodge City, August 13, he wrote that "the country, so far as we have come, is remarkably favorable for the enterprise." Following are some of his observations:

I have taken my own way of making notes and my own way of reflecting upon the whole question of this railroad route from the Pacific ocean to the summit of the Rocky Mountain and I purposely avoid sending you any random statements. In a general way I may say that I am satisfied that there is a practicable railroad route from Puget Sound, and from the mouth of Columbia in the valley of Columbia, to this place, with favorable grades and curvature, without very great cost per mile, and that a large portion of the route lies through or near to a country good either for the finest grazing or for agricultural purposes, and much of it through the best timbered region I have ever seen. Notwithstanding that I am prepared to make the above statement, it will be incumbent on me as an engineer to present the matter much more in detail when treating of routes; yet I regard the above as embracing an important general fact. There are miles of the road which will be very costly and troublesome, but there are so many favorable miles that I am warranted in going as far as I have in the preceding statements; but I desire particularly that you should not understand me as expressing an opinion in favor of any particular route.

Speaking of the rivers passed on the route, Mr. Roberts says that "Clark's Fork of the Columbia is a noble stream, from seven hundred to one thousand feet in width, and having even at its lowest stages an immense volume of water. It is as large as the Ohio between Pittsburg and Wheeling, but has more than six times the water flow. The Flathead river, one of its main branches, is from five hundred to seven hundred feet wide, with a volume of water at its lowest stage more than three times that of the Ohio at low water." We give another paragraph from the letter:

With a finished railroad the Columbia valley, favored as it is in many respects by natural settlements and way business would follow from the arrangements and facilities made by the railroad authorities for finding a market for the productive interests of the country. The extreme western end of the route, in the vicinity of Portland, will at once furnish a considerable amount of local trade and travel; and the Wallamet valley is already so well settled as to afford provisions at reasonable rates on the western coast. Grain, fruits and vegetables in abundance can be raised all along the route, thus far, for the support of the railroad bands engaged in construction; and cross-ties are easily to be had without much long hauling or transportation by land. The Wallamet valley is one of the finest agricultural regions of the West.

The writer speaks in high terms of the fertility of the soil on a large portion of the route. It is reported that Jay Cooke & Co. are all satisfied with the statements of the exploring party.

A Montana paper says: Gen. Sully, who left yesterday on a tour of inspection through the Indian country, will be absent three or four weeks, and will endeavor to make a satisfactory treaty with the Crows. He will also establish an agency for this nation and find a suitable location for a new fort, which is to be built at some point on the Yellowstone.

Diversity of Views.

John Quincy Adams, Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, declares for one line of policy, and George H. Pendleton, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, declares for another. These differences, which are felt to a very great extent throughout the party, render its condition very embarrassing. There is in reality a struggle going on within the party between the Copperheads and the progressive element, which must render harmony and co-operation impossible. John Quincy Adams delivered the opinion of the progressives in his speech accepting the nomination for Governor, when he said:

In my judgment our defeat in the last election substantially settled the reconstruction and negro suffrage controversy. Much as we may dislike the decision, there is no way short of revolution by which it can be reversed. It has passed from the realm of debateable questions and should now be classed in the category of facts. Arguments for and against its adoption were admissible last autumn, but now they are out of place; we cannot abrogate or abolish it; we must accept it as one of the elements in the problem offered for our solution.

Pendleton represents the extreme Copperhead wing; and in his last speech we find him entirely repudiating the conservatism of his Massachusetts brother. He said:

I cannot agree with Governor Hayes, that all the vexed questions of our national politics are wisely and happily settled; that the great questions of liberty, Union and reconstruction have been made safe. * * * I cannot say the Union is restored when Virginia, Mississippi and Texas are under military government. I oppose the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment because it is a material radical change of our Government and destroys the relations between the State and Federal Union which the Constitution established in the government of them, and takes away from the States, without their consent, that essential attribute of self-government and right to determine who shall exercise the right of suffrage, and because it was intended to, and will, introduce negro suffrage in Ohio, against the will of the people.

Adams thinks the reconstruction controversy is settled; Pendleton thinks it is not. Adams holds that negro suffrage is a fixed and irreversible fact which might as well be accepted; Pendleton maintains that it is not permanently established, and may be reversed. This diversity of views exists among Democrats in every State; and though the Copperhead wing is strongest they cannot carry the whole strength of the party for their extreme propositions.

In General.

The Herald rejoices tumultuously over the fact that a Legislature has been elected in California which will reject the Fifteenth Amendment. Would it not be prudent for that paper and its political confederates to go a little slow? Before the adjournment of the next session of Congress we shall have the pleasure of seeing the amendment crammed down the throat of California. Vermont and Iowa and Minnesota and Virginia will do it. The Democratic party has won its last victory in California by humbugging on this subject.

We notice that the "bloated contractors" who are improving our streets have adopted a policy which is directly antagonistic to the interests of the laboring men. They use wagons and carts, drawn by horses, to remove earth from excavations, and thus cheapen the operation and make a great profit out of it. If they would employ men with wheelbarrows to do the work, laborers would have a better chance and would get some of the money which now goes into the pockets of "bloated contractors." This thing of using horses to do work which might be done by intelligent white men is worse than hiring a Chinaman to do it. We hope the Herald will attend to this matter.

The Republican party maintains its ground nobly in Maine. The Democrats hoped much from the split among the Republicans on prohibition, but the result does not justify their expectations. Although a full vote was not polled, the returns show that the Republicans are fully as strong in the State as they were last year, and much stronger than in 1867. We anticipate good results in Ohio and Pennsylvania next month. In 1867 when the Republican majority in Maine was so greatly reduced, the Democrats carried Pennsylvania and nearly succeeded in Ohio. But this year the Republicans in Maine do better, and we doubt not their success will be followed up the other States mentioned. For many years the result in Maine, in September, has been accepted as an index to the result in the other States in October and November following.

While croakers in our country are telling hideous tales of the sufferings of our people and predicting all sorts of woes and distresses to come, it is noticeable that large meetings are being held in the British Provinces adjoining the United States, in which the policy of annexation is strongly urged, and the prosperity of our people pointed at by way of contrast with the condition of the provincials. People from the Provinces are flocking by thousands into the United States to better their condition; but we do not hear that anybody is going to that region from the United States to get rid of the "tyranny" and "oppression" and "unjust legislation" and "special privileges" of which political malcontents here talk so much. The resolutions adopted at the annexation meeting at Quebec, telegraphed to-day, are a striking commentary on the croakings of those persons among us who are of opinion that the people of the United States are groaning under a weight of intolerable burdens.

THE CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—Commenting on the California election the Bulletin says:

The fate of the Fifteenth Amendment, so far as California is concerned, is of course sealed. But this is a matter of no practical consequence. The Amendment is certain to be adopted, and the world will roll on as easily thereafter as it does now, and not a Caucasian in the land will know that he is hurt. Demagogues made the same objection to the Fourteenth Amendment, in substance; yet that has been in force now two years, and not one of the predicted evils has come or is anticipated by any sane person.

The rivalry of Republican leaders has been one of the main cause of the utter defeat of the party. When it rises again, new men will take their places, and they will be justly punished for the selfishness not to say corruption, which first demoralized and then divided the organization.

A Philadelphia paper says that if rain does not come soon, the eels and cattle in the Schuylkill will be swimming round with tin cups in their mouths begging.

BUSINESS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

We copy from the Sacramento Union's report of Sept. 9th:

Business matters continue in the depressed condition so frequently referred to by the press since the completion of the Pacific Railroad. Nor is it very clear when or how improvement is to be effected so long as our local financiers and leading merchants persist in conducting their business on the present pernicious system, which affords every advantage to the usurer and speculator, at the expense of the producers.

The merchants and bankers of California have got to learn to conduct their business on the same principle that the merchants and bankers in other communities follow. To monopolize any article in extensive use for the purpose of raising its price, is not a sound business principle. To export money out of the State in order to raise the rate of interest on the amount retained, is not the policy of prudent bankers. Merchants who hold goods at high prices because they think they control the market, invite competitors who are underselling them at their very doors. It is this principle in our local business which accounts for the fact that retail dealers are tolerably busy, while the wholesale houses are doing nothing. Chicago and New York merchants are selling more goods in this State now than those of San Francisco. The cost of transportation of most classes of goods from New York is less than the difference in the rate of interest on money in that State and this. This is a fact that our merchants do not appear to comprehend, or they certainly would not combine to place the additional burden on business of demanding notes, bearing interest, from their customers. The legal rate of interest in New York is six per cent. per annum. More than this cannot be legally demanded, while the current rate for country customers in this State is two to three per cent. per month. If the meeting of merchants which assemble to-day, pass the first that none of its members will sell goods without cash or note, will not such a rule give the New York and Chicago merchants complete control of this market? They can sell their goods cheaper than we can, because the rental of their capital is less than ours, and if they take notes they will bear less interest than those exacted by our merchants. If our merchants should only demand six to ten per cent. per annum on such notes, should they fall into the hands of usurers, the debtor would be shaved most unmercifully. Taking notes from customers is practicable and judicious in States having a regular banking system, by which periodical statements of the condition of the banks are published; but such notes in this State will place the throat of every business man within the grip of the usurers. It is not by such tricks that our drooping trade can be revived. What is wanted is cheaper money and more of it—cheap money, being to trade what cheap labor is to manufactures, a great element of extension, with the difference that while protective laws may sustain manufactures with dear labor, no law can be framed that will sustain commerce under an excessive rate of interest on the money employed in its conduct.

Boots and shoes are dull. The local manufacturers complain of the increased competition of eastern makers per railway. The freight on fine goods made in the East being less than one fourth the difference in the rate of wages paid here and there, some of the leading manufacturers are talking of closing their establishments because they are losing heavily at present. Candles are lower, with immense stocks of all brands in store and to arrive. Grant's are offered at 16@16½c; Gross' 16½@17; San Francisco, 16c; Schmidt's and Marcey's, 16@16½c; Harkness' Patent Wax, 18c. Coal is in full supply and cheap, Cumberland, in bulk, selling at $17 50@18; in casks at $20; Lehigh, $14@15; Sydney, $10 50@11. Coffee is extremely dull and decidedly downward. Central American is offering at 18@18½c; Costa Rica, 19@19½c; Rio, 18@19c; Manila, 17½@18c; Java, 25c. Oregon Salt Salmon is selling at $5 75 in hf bbls. Mackerel are dull at $3 25@3 37½ for kits, $14@14 50 in hf bbls, with large receipts and heavy shipments on the way.

Oils are unsettled; lard is offered at $1 60@1 65; China nut is firm at 95c; Pratt's at 42½c; Devoe's and Downer's coal is selling at 53@55; other brands 37½@40; California linseed $1 15@1 25 for raw and boiled. French oils are almost unsaleable. Rice is dull at 5½@5¾c for No 2 China; 6@6½ for No. 1. Salt is abundant at $11@12 50 ℔ ton for Bay, in bulk and bags; $14@16 for Carmen Island, and $27 50@30 for Liverpool. The Ann Eliza brought a cargo from Scammon's Lagoon, which is offered at $12. Sugars are firm, in view of the large supplies on hand and to come. The Kloge brought 16,018 bags, and the Mauritius 12,729 bags from Manila. There was a very large auction sale of Hawaiian during the week, at which 5,000 kegs were disposed of at $7 50@12 05 ℔ cental, on sixty days. The bulk of this lot sold at about 10c. Teas are only selling in small jobbing lots, for local consumption. Spirits are active and upward. None of the local distilleries are in operation.

The produce market continues completely under the control of the "ring," and every article of produce is selling at prices which leaves the farmer nothing for his labor. It is but poor inducement for agriculturists to come to this State, when good farming lands are held at $50@100 per acre, and choice wheat sells for $1 65, barley at 86 cts, oats $1 25, potatoes 75 cts per cental, from which costs of commissions, bags, transportation and handling have to be deducted. Farmers cannot cover their expenses at present prices, while money lenders and members of the "ring" are growing rich by keeping down the market. It is this feature in our business system which proves that our financiers favor speculators at the expense of producers. The various loan societies have built palatial offices, in addition to paying 10 to 12 per cent. per annum to depositors, while the actual producers of the money have barely made a living.

Wool—The rise in gold, scarcity of money and limited supplies, have rendered this market unfavorable to sellers. At the regular monthly sales in New York, August 26th, California wools sold extensively at 22@38½c per lb, according to grade. Prices here are: Burry, 9@12½; clean, 13@16c; choice, $17@21c.

Great World Circus!

And Exhibition of

PERFORMING AFRICAN LIONS!

Will Exhibit on the Lot

COR. PINE AND FOURTH STS.,

Commencing

TUESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21, 1869.

Doors open at 7½; Performance to commence at 8 P. M.

THE MANAGER OF THIS GIGANTIC ESTABLISHMENT encouraged by the very extensive and liberal patronage with which his efforts for a number of years have been rewarded, and with the view of presenting to the public of the Pacific Coast an Exhibition of SURPASSING EXCELLENCE, has secured the HIGHEST ARENIC TALENT IN THE WORLD. From all parts of Europe and America, and in addition has secured the greatest sensation of the age, a den of performing AFRICAN LIONS!

Together with their intrepid keeper, MONS. LAMBERT, the Lion Conqueror, who will at each representation enter their den and by the exercise of a mysterious power perform a number of

THRILLING AND DARING FEATS!

With these Monarchs of the Forests.

The citizens of this place and vicinity may depend on this being a

First Class Entertainment,

And that these Lions are four in number, and weighing 1,500 pounds, and is positively the finest den of performing African Lions in the world.

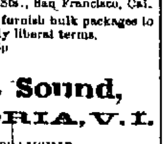

The performance will be moral, interesting and refined. The management have in connection, California's Favorite Jester,

HARRY JACKSON.

No effort at rivalry can do more than make a weak and ineffectual approximation to the Great World Circus and Animal Exhibition.

SUPREME COURT PROCEEDINGS.—From the Daily Statesman. Tuesday, Sept. 14th:

[illegible], appellant, vs. Benton county, respondent. Appeal from Benton county. Argued and submitted.

[illegible], respondent, vs. E. Hartless, appellant, [illegible] county. Argued and submitted.

[illegible], appellant, vs. Douglas county, respondent. Appeal from Douglas county. Argued and submitted.

[illegible], appellant, vs. D. Gravell, appellant, [illegible] Coos county.

[illegible] This was an action tried before a J. P.; appealed to the Circuit Court, and his appeal [illegible] because the notice of appeal was served by the J. P. and not by the appellant, he has appealed [illegible]. We think that ruling was correct. [illegible] it requires notices to be [illegible] by the adverse party. No notice, then, could [illegible] from and in the name of the J. P. [illegible] Ellsworth and Burnett for appellant [illegible].

[illegible], respondent, vs. Henry Lander, appellant. Appeal from Douglas county.

[illegible], C. J.—The only question in this case is, whether [illegible] of title or interest, in real property, or right [illegible] upon the pleadings within [illegible] 539 of the Code, so as to give [illegible] of course. The complaint is for the [illegible] and removing of a house from the land [illegible] without his consent. The answer denies the [illegible] of the complaint, and alleges that the house [illegible] in the complaint was the property of [illegible]. The jury found a verdict for plaintiff for [illegible]. The plaintiff is entitled to costs, of course. The [illegible] of interest in real property or right to the possession [illegible] arises upon these pleadings. There is no error in the judgment [illegible].

[illegible], respondent, vs. E. Hartless, appellant. [illegible] Benton county.

[illegible]—Upon motion of the respondent, the complaint [illegible] and replication were stricken from the [illegible] Court, because they were the original pleadings [illegible] thereof, and now appellant moves the Court [illegible] affidavit, for leave to file copies of the pleadings [illegible] certified, for the purpose of perfecting the [illegible].

[illegible] that this motion is within the principle [illegible] by this Court, in 2, Oregon R., 117. We think [illegible]. In that case, appellant omitted to file [illegible] by the second day of the term, and it was [illegible] this Court could have no jurisdiction. Here, [illegible] containing certified copies of the [illegible] other entries, notice of appeal and bond, [illegible] filed within the time prescribed by law. [illegible] jurisdiction of the case, we hold [illegible] by a defective or incomplete transcript, the Court [illegible] power, in its discretion, to permit the transcript to be perfected, by allowing the copies offered to [illegible] allowed. Chenoweth for the motion, Strong [illegible] contra.

BURNT RIVER DITCH.—We learn by way of a letter dated Sept. 8th, that the portion of the Burnt River [illegible] to be dug, by Wa Kee & Co., is already nearly completed. The work to be done by Chinese laborers will be finished about the 20th, from Rock Creek to Camp Creek. This latter stream will furnish plenty of water [illegible]. When this section shall be finished, the total length of the ditch will be sixty-seven miles. [illegible] with this matter, we learn that Judge J. [illegible] agent for Wa Kee & Co., will start in a few days for [illegible] River, on business connected with the ditch, [illegible] as soon as the round trip can be be made, come [illegible]. He will attend to any business that may be entrusted to him in any part of the Burnt River mines, or along the route via Umatilla, La Grande, Baker City, Auburn, [illegible], Malheur, etc. The Judge also is agent [illegible] of certain mining interests in several of the [illegible] districts, and as he has taken pains to post [illegible] in regard to all these mines, he is prepared to act [illegible] and may be relied upon.

[illegible].—Among the recent patents issued is one [illegible] H. Day, of Walla Walla, for a rock-crusher.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church hold a festival [illegible] at the basement of the church—an [illegible] affair.

One case of drunk before the Recorder yesterday. Case [illegible] so ingeniously that Recorder let him off.

[illegible] Great World Circus to perform at Portland five evenings next week, commencing with Tuesday, at corner of [illegible] and Fourth.

[illegible] reporter, in view of scarcity of lamp posts on back streets, suggests that Council have red-haired girls set up. Don't.

[illegible] houses of Jewish merchants in this city were closed yesterday. Celebrating Day of Atonement.

The steamer U. S. Grant, of Astoria, is here for the purpose of getting some repairs to her machinery.

A NOVEL [illegible].—All along Front street, where the Nicolson pavement has been laid down near the river bank, the latter has settled more or less, and in some places the street grade has fallen several inches below its [illegible] height, loosening the blocks and greatly injuring the pavement. An expedient suggested by Mr. [illegible], City Auditor, has been adopted to prevent the [illegible] from giving away, in all that part of the street now being paved. At the distance of about every twelve feet the curb timbers on the two sides of the street, are [illegible] by inch rods of iron with bolts and screws at each end. These rods cross the street, between the rows of blocks, answering where they cross, the use of the usual strips of wood. They are made in three parts and are joined with an eye. The expedient will work, and is far less expensive than to wall up a proper support for the river-side curb.

SHIPPING ITEMS.—The steamship Oriflamme will sail for San Francisco this afternoon at 6 o'clock. The Wright for Puget Sound to-morrow evening.

The [illegible] will, in a few days, drop down to Springville, where she will take a part cargo of staves, hardwood [illegible] and produce.

The [illegible] C. Besse is destined for Hong Kong, to start, probably, within the next month or six weeks.

THREE—The Owyhee Tidal Wave of the 9th inst. says: [illegible] Train, who has traveled all over Oregon and California, gave a blast or two at Virginia City, Nevada, and jumped aboard the train for Omaha, giving White Pine, Idaho and Montana the go by."

POSTAL.—Mr. J. B. Underwood, Postal Agent, is in this city, en route to Walla Walla and La Grande, and and possibly to other points in Eastern Oregon, to look after Postal matters. He is making a special point of ascertaining where and what additional mail facilities are needed, preparatory to a visit to Washington which he intends to make prior to the next mail lettings. Beside this trip he will probably again visit Eastern Oregon before going East; but the people should lose no time in making their wants known. Mr. Underwood has considerable memoranda of various routes, relating to postal needs, which he will lay before Congress and the Post-office Department, and will urge that all necessary routes and offices be established. Among the recommendations which we understand he will make is one for a tri-weekly mail from Boise City to Dalles via Canyon City—a greatly needed measure. He will start up the Columbia next Monday.

DULL TIMES AT PUGET SOUND.—We have seen a letter from Puget Sound, dated September 6th, which says that times are much duller than during last winter and the early part of the summer. The change is owing to the falling off in the outside demand for lumber. Most of the mills are running only half time, and several of the logging camps are closed out. The result is that many young men are idle or working for small wages and waiting for revival of business. Mercantile business has fallen off, in sympathy with the decline in the lumber trade.

TO MT. HOOD.—A party of young gentlemen of this city are making preparations for a trip to the summit of Mt. Hood. Those of the party whose names we have heard mentioned, are Messrs. Buchtel, Bowman, Lindeman and Holladay. They propose to take along a complete outfit for the journey, and to go to the top. Mr. Buchtel will take along photographing apparatus and secure some new views.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE AVONDALE FUND.—During yesterday we received the following additional donations for the Avondale sufferers: cash $1; Phil. Saunders, $2 50; E. S. Griffith, $1; H. L. Pittock, $10. Before acknowledged $41 50; total, $166—deposited at Ladd & Tilton's bank for transmission. Subsequent to the deposit and after the closing of bank, received from Capt. B. F. Smith $10.

A NEW CANE.—Some of the citizens of Oregon City have presented Major Adams with a handsome, stout, hickory cane, to supply the place of the one he broke over McKinney's head. It has one silver plate on which is engraved the Major's name, and another which has the inscription "For Use."

CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES.—Those in want of a carriage or buggy, of almost any style, should call upon Mr. Taylor, at the Fashion stables, First street, or J. G. Reed, Cosmopolitan Hotel. A fresh arrival, per bark Hattie C. Besse.

HORSES DROWNED.—A Mr. Leonard, of Vancouver, lost a span of horses by drowning, on Tuesday. He drove them into the river to let them drink. Taking fright, they ran into deep water and could not be got out.

NO LOSS.—The Tidal Wave says Jim O'Meara can very well be spared from Idaho, so far as all the material interests of the Territory are concerned. Just as we supposed.

CHANGE OF NAME.—The Salem paper—formerly Daily Oregon Unionist—appeared last evening wearing the title of Daily Oregon Statesman.

POSTPONEMENT.—The yacht race which was announced to come off to-day, is postponed until Tuesday next, Sept. 21st.

JUST RECEIVED per steamer Oriflamme by J. C. Meussdorffer & Bro. the CUPID HAT, DIANA HAT and EBURNA HAT. They have only shortly been introduced in New York and San Francisco, and are entirely new in design. Call and see them at MEUSSDORFFER'S.

LADIES, TAKE NOTICE!—MRS. C. LEVY has just received per steamer Oriflamme, via Pacific Railroad from New York, the first shipment of STAPLE and FANCY DRY GOODS for the Fall Trade; and as they are direct from first hands she is enabled to offer them at unprecedentedly Low Prices.

THE WEST.

George B. Waldron, well known here as an actor, is now at Helena.

During the week of the State Fair at Sacramento excursion tickets were sold for the round trip from San Francisco to Sacramento and back for three dollars by the boats and five dollars by rail.

J. H. Flickinger of Santa Clara valley, Cal., raised two hundred tons of beets last year, which averaged twenty-five beets to the ton. There were many of them that exceeded one hundred pounds to the beet.

The amount of powder manufactured at the California Powder Works during the month of August, was as follows: 13,328 kegs of blasting, 54 cases sporting, 20 barrels cannon, 13 kegs meal, suitable for fireworks.

In Owyhee an unusually large sum remains unpaid on county and territorial taxes this year. Over $19,000 are yet on the delinquent list, more than $16,000 of which is taxed against mill companies that refuse to pay on the ground of excessive valuation, and will resist payment in Court at the October term.

An Owyhee paper says: The Poorman mine, which for several months has been considered a "sick man," and was about to be put on the indigent sick list, has blazed out again in full and vigorous health. A fine vein of excellent ore revealed itself in the south drift of the 400 foot level on Monday and revived the spirits of those having the patient in charge. The vein is full three feet wide and has the appearance of permanence. The locality of this new development is nearly directly under the old discovery or Fort Baker shaft, four hundred feet from the surface. The Poorman lives.

The San Francisco Bulletin, of the 9th inst., has the following: Now that the Western Pacific is about finished there are signs of activity on other railroad routes more or less controlled by the same corporation. Laborers are arriving at Marysville to commence grading the California and Oregon Railroad. The Chinese employed on the Western Pacific are being transferred thither, and 1,000 or more will be at work by end of the month. We have previously stated that the iron and ties for one hundred miles of the Oregon road have been accumulated on the road connecting Marysville with the Central Pacific. Whether the Oroville Railroad will be bought for the first section of the Oregon line is not yet known.

The Amendment in this State.

[From the Albany (N. Y.) Journal.]

Considerable comment—more than necessary—has been occasioned by the failure of Governor Hoffman to transmit to Washington a statement that the Fifteenth Amendment had been endorsed by our Legislature. It will be remembered that the action was in the form of a joint resolution. As this does not require the Governor's signature, and as he was not requested to make the notification, he probably assumed that there was nothing for him to do in the premises. The Detroit Post (Rep.) considers this as taking a very unfair partisan advantage; while the Rochester Union (Dem.) hopes that the next Legislature will be politically so constituted that it will take no steps to supply the omission. Really we do not see that the course of the Governor has any effect whatever upon the measure. He might have notified the State Department of the facts, had he seen fit to do so; but his failure does not involve the slightest consequence. The act of the Legislature was complete in itself. It is a matter of official record, and susceptible of proof in any form required. It is operative equally with or without Executive sanction. If the requisite number of States—three-fourths with New York, endorse the amendment, nobody need fear that it will fail to become part of the Constitution because Governor Hoffman did not write an official letter to Secretary Fish, apprising him of the passage of the joint resolutions.

MARK TWAIN.—Following is one of Mark Twain's "sketches."

John Wagner, the oldest man in Buffalo 104 years—recently walked a mile and a half in two week. He is as cheerful and bright as any of these other old men that charge around so in the newspapers, and is in every way as remarkable. Last November he walked five blocks in a rain storm without any shelter but an umbrella, and cast his vote for Grant, remarking that he had voted for forty-seven Presidents—which was a lie. His "second crop of rich brown hair" arrived from New York yesterday, and he has a new set of teeth coming—from Philadelphia. He is to be married next week to a girl 102 years old, who still takes in washing. They have been engaged 89 years, but their parents persistently refused their consent until three days ago. John Wagner is two years older than the Rhode Island veteran, and yet has never tasted a drop of liquor in his life, unless you count whisky.

Secretary Boutwell has saved the country more than four times his weight in gold every week for the last four months.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED BADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak [illegible], Weak, and Rheumatic Limbs, Scrofula, [illegible], Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus-Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation, with all their concomitants [illegible], Impotency and all kinds of weakness of the Generative Organs, Spermatorrhœa, confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

An Old Ballad Renewed.

The princess she was a winsome thing,
Only seventeen years that spring.

She said to her love, "I fain would see
Your pack of hounds loose on the lea."

Saddle thy horse and gird thee, Brand,
And we will ride to a friendlier land."

"Lady fair, I've no steed but one;
But thou shalt ride and I will run."

"Earl Brand, my father has horses three;
More than enough for you and me."

So away they galloped o'er moss and moor,
And these lovers not neither rich nor poor.

They never slackened for sun or rain,
On the hill-side, or over the plain.

Fox might bark, or the wild hawk scream,
Life with them was a summer dream.

Till at last they met at the side of a wood,
With one who was evil and never good.

"Earl Brand," said the maiden, "if ye love me,
Slay that traitor, or he'll slay thee."

"I cannot slay him my lady fair,
For bent is his back and gray his hair."

"Why, sir knight, in such haste to ride,
And where have you stolen that bonny bride?"

"She is my sister, and not my wife,
And I fear me much for the maiden's life."

"If she is weary, and all but dead,
Why does she wear that hood of red?

If she's been sick and like to die,
Why do I gold and jewels spy?"

He ran back fast to her kith and kin,
And beat at the door till they let him in.

"Now where is the lady of this hall?"
"Out at play with the cowslip ball."

"No!" he cried, "you are all mista'en;
Go count your maidens o'er again.

I met her but now in headlong flight
With young Earl Brand, the English knight."

Her father he mounted with fifteen men,
And rode swift down the mountain glen.

The lady looked back as the stream they ford,
And cried, "Ride faster, or draw your sword."

"If they come on me one by one,
You must stand by till the fight be none;

But if they charge on me one and all,
You must stand by and see me fall."

Then one by one they on him ran,
And fourteen times he slew his man,

Ten of the rascals dead by the burn,
Four rogues dead on the trampled fern;

Then the fifteenth traitor stealing round,
Gave him a deep and deadly wound.

The knight of his wound took little heed,
And set his lady upon her steed,

They rode till they came to the brimming tide,
And there he bound his bleeding side.

"O, Earl, I see your red heart's blood!"
"Nay! 'tis but the gleam of your scarlet hood."

They rode till they came to his mother's door,
Then he fell dead on the chamber floor.

—All the Year Round.

A First-Class Sensation.

[From the Washington Star.]

Is the solar system in danger? English papers are discussing the question, and the controversy not only leads to the mention of some interesting facts, but developes some curious theories. As the scorching rays of the sun, which during the past week have made corn grow and humanity wilt on this side of the Atlantic, have irresistibly drawn men's minds to the source from which our planet is supplied with caloric, it may interest our readers to learn what is said on the subject. The sun has been shown to be subject to variations in brightness and heat, and these changes are periodical, and connected with "the magnetic storms" on earth, which takes place when the spots on the surface of the sun are agitated. On September 1, 1869, the most remarkable of these storms that has been observed took place; and all the telegraph lines on both hemispheres were disturbed. In some places severe shocks were felt by operators, and even flames appeared in the instrument; at night magnificent auroras were seen. Another similar storm is expected in 1870, astronomers believing that it will recur every 11 years. A few years ago a small star suddenly blazed into great brightness, and by-and-by the spectroscope showed that the flame was burning hydrogen. Now, the sun contains in it a vast amount of hydrogen, and at times sends up flames of it many thousand miles. If these flames must be greatly high about the sun, what would be the result if the sun should suddenly dart out a blaze like that of the star, so long we fear? The earth would be turned into vapor, says a leading man of science, as quickly as a drop of water thrown into a furnace.

All this, one would think, is sensational enough but the London Spectator, in a curious speculation upon "The Solar Mutability," in which the above points are discussed, goes further, and expresses the belief that men's minds are greatly influenced by the agitations going on in the sun. The writer cannot probably be called a lunatic, but under his own theory would it not be correct to style him a "solatic?" That the moon directly affects minds and has an influence on subordinary affairs generally, has long been a matter of belief, but the sun has not been charged heretofore with affecting the brain, except in cases of coup de soleil, or sunstroke. But to the Spectator. It says:

"And we now know that these appearances are not merely matters for the curious, with which, as they happen at a distance of 90,000,000 miles, practical men need not concern themselves. In point of fact, it is by no means impossible that the issues of peace or war, of a financial crisis, or a religious agitation, may be closely bound up with these phenomenon; if not indeed—which is also quite impossible—the sudden disappearance of our whole system after the fashion of the other solar systems which have thus disappeared. This much, at least, is certain, that the vast changes now going on in the physical constitution of the sun and changes which do most powerfully affect the electric conditions of our earth, which have in former years caused the most violent disturbances in the various artificial as well as natural electric apparatuses of the world we live in, and which, to speak of the least of all its possible effects, might just as well as not happen some day to throw the electric condition of every telegraphic cable on our planet, under the sea or above it, into the most dire confusion, and send down telegraphic companies' shares to zero in a lump, even if they did not contrive to telegraph to us, after some strange inarticulate fashion, that shares in all public companies, even in that very limited public company, the human race, are, in a physical point of view, of very doubtful value, indeed."

Washington is neither prosperous nor happy. The agitation for the removal of the Capital which is in progress at the West frightens the property owners and storekeepers of the District of Columbia not a little. The proposal has been heard before, but never with the authority and system which sustain it now. Apart from this source of trouble, the landlords and traders of the city are experiencing the depression inseparable from a great reaction. The war forced the growth of Washington, immensely. Population crowded there, and the owners of the houses and lots, and all who had aught to sell, were in ecstasy. Riches flowed upon them continually. The war ended, the armies disbanded, the influx of strangers stayed, and the Departments thinned—the whole city feels the change; and the local press tries in vain to supply consolation. The Washingtonians are weeping for fortunes suddenly collapsed, and will not be comforted.

"A. J." a Repudiator.—In a recent speech at Knoxville, (Tenn.,) that scurvy politician, A. Johnson, committed himself unqualifiedly to national and State repudiation. The following is the language he used:

"There is a debt owing by the United States, amounting to $2,500,000,000. These men who are engaged in this conspiracy to change our republican government into an empire, say that this debt was created to 'preserve the republic.' Now, what is assumed? Simply that we must destroy this republic for the purpose of paying the debt, by converting the republic into an empire. My countrymen, before God and this people to-night, I would rather that the republic were preserved and the debt let go. This debt was created to preserve the republic. Now the republic must be destroyed to pay the debt! Rather let the government be preserved and the debt let go!

A six year old boy was asked by his teacher to write a composition on the subject of water, and the following is the production: "Water is good to drink, to swim in, and to skate on when frozen. When I was a little baby, the nurse used to bathe me every morning in water: I have been told that the Indians don't wash themselves but once in ten years. I wish I was an Injun!"

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

September Term, 1869.

P. F. McManus, Respondent, vs. W. A. Owen, et al, Appellants.—Appeal, Jackson county.

The appellants brought into this Court a transcript containing a notice of appeal and certificate of an attorney, drawn in these words: "To P. F. McManus, plaintiff: Take notice that the defendants will appeal to the Supreme Court of the State of Oregon, from the decision rendered in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson county, in the above entitled cause; for error in said judgment or decree, to this, that said cause should have been dismissed by the said court, and the plaintiff remitted to his remedy at law, if he have any.

JAMES D. FAY,
Defendant's Attorney."

"I, James D. Fay, an attorney at law and practitioner in the above named court, do hereby certify that I have examined the decree entered in the above entitled cause, and that it is substantially erroneous as above set forth.

JAMES D. FAY,
Attorney at Law."

The respondent moved the Court to dismiss the appeal on these grounds—

1st. No sufficient notice of appeal was served on Respondent.

2d. The certificate does not state the particulars in which the decree or judgment in the Court below is erroneous, &c.

Fay & Dowell, for Appellants, Williams & Kahler, for respondents.

Wilson, J.—The provisions of the statute referring to the matters under consideration, is the latter clause in Sec. 527 page 260, of the Code, reading as follows: "Such notice shall state that the appellant appeals from the judgment, or decree, or some specified part thereof, and, in case the appeal be from a judgment or decree of the Circuit Court, shall contain the certificate of an attorney of the Court to the effect that he has examined the judgment or decree, and that the same is substantially erroneous, and in what particulars." This provision recites that the notice shall contain a certificate, &c., to the effect, &c. Objections have been made to the sufficiency of a notice, to which is appended the certificate of the attorney as in this case. We hold that such a certificate so made, and served with the notice, is a substantial compliance with the statute, and affords no ground for dismissal of appeal for that reason. The statute further provides in Sec. 534 thus, "the appellate court may affirm, reverse or modify the judgment or decree appealed from, in the respect mentioned in the notice and not otherwise, &c." It is evident from this, that the power of the appellate court over an appealed cause is enlarged or diminished by the assignment of errors in the certificate—making it very obvious that the matters in the certificate are jurisdictional questions, upon which the appeal is based. This court cannot go beyond such assignment, otherwise, its action would certainly deceive and mislead a party and render the subject of appeal a farce.

The right to take exceptions at proper stages in the development of a cause is an absolute one, and tends to speedy attainment of justice—since an exception distinctly and aptly stated gives to the other party an opportunity to either abandon his cause, if in real error, or to so apply the rights under the statute as to put his cause in proper condition for a just determination. So the assignment of errors in the certificate performs a similar work: and also, gives to the court below a guide in the allowance of a necessary statement, and to the appellate court questions which alone it may try. It follows then, that the more accurately and clearly the exceptions are taken, and assignment thereof made, will the safe and certain administration of law and justice be secured. The statute requires that the particular grounds of error should be set forth in the certificate, and the reason is obvious. Our statute is still more precise than is a similar one in New York. That requires "that the appellant, shall serve a notice of appeal, stating the grounds upon which the appeal was founded." Under that statute it was held in 2 Sanford, 632, that the appellant "must put his finger on the point relied upon, or distinctly inform his adversary on what ground he alleges that there is error in the judgment." In 16 Howard, Pr. R, 471, these were the specifications: "that material testimony offered on the trial was excluded;" "that material testimony was admitted which should have been excluded;" "that the evidence was insufficient on the question of damages, and that the judgment was against the law of the case," and these were held to be too vague and general, as presenting no particular points for review. In that case the Court reason clearly upon the meaning of their statute. In 15 How., Pr. Rep. 32, the specification "that the judgment is clearly against the law and evidence in the case" is insufficient and gives no notice of the real ground in appeal.

In the case under our consideration is the assignment as definite as were those in the New York cases? It certainly is not more so. The appellant specifies "that said cause should have been dismissed by the said Court, and that plaintiff remitted to his remedy at law, if he have any." He does not state why it should have been dismissed or at what stage in the progress of the case the Court came to the erroneous conclusion. He requires this Court to critically examine the whole record, and to labor in the discovery of some ground somewhere, on which to rest his alleged error. He does not point to a single, or particular error in the ruling or decision of the Court. The error might well have been in a ruling upon a demurrer to any of the different pleadings in the cause—might have been in the admission or rejection of testimony—or in the findings on questions of fact by the Court in a law action, or the general finding in a suit in equity, and it might attach to the one place, or act, rather than to another.

In the sections cited, our code clearly requires the particular assignments of the errors relied upon. It should be as certain and particular as were the rulings or decisions alleged to be erroneous. We think the certificate contains no such assignment of error as is required, and the motion is sustained.

It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Colton & Co., New York, for publication.

We call attention to the following endorsements.

ENDORSEMENTS.

Olympia, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. White, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound, I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical Surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea

Is without doubt the most wonderful eye healer that has yet been discovered. It cures the most stubborn and hopeless chronic inflammations, granulated lids, films, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought to public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its infallibility that he warrants a cure or refunds the money. It can do the eye no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or risk to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of five, six, nine, ... and even eighteen years' standing in ... Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL ...
A. L. WALLACE, G. E. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,

And others in that vicinity.
